Onsite Sign-in

There will be onsite sign in for the course on Saturday morning from 8:30 AM to 9:00 AM at the Moab Valley Inn Conference Room. You will receive your printed textbook and course program at that time. Sign-in is required so that we have an accurate record of your attendance for Continuing Medical Education credits.

Course Description

“Learn the skills to prevent medical problems; reduce suffering and save lives in non-traditional medical settings

- Earn your Advanced Wilderness Life Support certification
- Learn the latest practical hands-on wilderness medicine skills for patient assessment, treatment and evacuation protocols
- Practice your skills in live scenarios with our expert instructors
- Obtain up to 23 hours of category 1 CME*
- Receive Wilderness Medical Society Fellowship credits

The Hybrid AWLS course will be an exciting new format for us. Following completion of 12 Online Modules to cover the didactic portion of the AWLS curriculum, students will meet in person for the practical skills component. Following a opportunity to review questions from the modules, we will dive into practical skills and wilderness victim scenarios. This means the two days in Moab will be spent almost entirely outside on doing hands-on practical skills.

Course Objectives

To provide a practical foundation in Wilderness Medicine for medical professionals

To teach patient assessment and treatment guidelines for life support until definitive care or evacuation is available

To train the provider in methods for managing medical and trauma emergencies and urgencies in the wilderness when evacuation is unavailable or unnecessary

Topics Include:

- ❖ Patient assessment
- ❖ Trauma
- ❖ Medical problems
- ❖ Infectious disease
- ❖ Head, Ear, Eye, Nose, Throat, Skin
- ❖ Animal & insect Bites
- ❖ Musculoskeletal injuries
- ❖ Wound management
- ❖ Water treatment
- ❖ Hyperthermia, hypothermia & frostbite

About Moab

Moab is the gateway to the Colorado Plateau offering some of the most unique geology and natural beauty in the world. It is surrounded by red rock country including Arches and Canyonlands National Parks and is adjacent to the mighty Colorado River. It is considered by many to be the mountain biking capital of the world, well known for the Slickrock trail and many other recreational attractions. In addition to mountain biking, the area offers hiking, river rafting, climbing, four wheeling and endless sightseeing. The desert climate makes it an ideal place to enjoy clear blue skies and mild temperatures during the fall. The town of Moab is host to several restaurants, shops and other attractions. For more information, visit the Moab website at www.moab-utah.com. For mountain biking information visit www.utahmountainbiking.com

Lodging

The conference is being held at the Moab Valley Inn located on Main Street in Moab and is a full -service hotel and conference center, featuring a swimming pool, Jacuzzi, fitness center, game room, business center, in room refrigerator, wireless internet and free continental breakfast. It is within walking distance of local restaurants and shops. AdventureMed has contracted with the Inn for special room rates ($140.00 for a standard room.

Please make your reservation early as Moab is a popular destination during the Spring.

For other questions regarding lodging please contact AdventureMed and AWLS at 801-512-0055 or visit the Moab Valley Inn website at www.moabvalleyinn.com or www.moab-utah.com

Transportation

Moab is in southeastern Utah, just 4 miles south of the entrance to Arches National Park, and 30 miles east of Canyonlands National Park. The closest international airport is in Salt Lake City, where air shuttle and ground transportation are available. Moab is relatively easy to reach from Salt Lake City and is approximately a four-hour drive. Most major rental car companies have locations at the Salt Lake International Airport (Avis, Budget, Dollar, Hertz, National). There are also shuttle services that can drive you to Moab. There is also an airport at Grand Junction, Colorado, which is about a 90-minute drive to Moab. Rental cars are also available at the Grand Junction airport.

Moab's Scheduled Airline Service

Great Lakes Airlines offers daily scheduled service between Moab, UT and Denver, CO. Reservations phone: (800) 554-5111

Clothing and Other Equipment

Moab is generally warm in the month of May (70+ degrees F) and so shorts and warm weather clothes are appropriate. However, the nights and mornings can be chilly and there is a chance of rain in the desert in the spring, so bring rain jacket/pants and warmer clothes. The sun is quite strong and hats and protective clothing are recommended. All technical equipment for the practical sessions will be provided.
